

LOCAL NEWS.

ARMY TO FORT MISERY.—This is what, we suppose, Judge Howard said, when he, the other day, abandoned his castle, spiked its guns, and retreated to town. Dear old Fort Misery! despised, abandoned, and almost caved in, as you now are, your grim walls will still stand upright, to remind the ancient citizens of this now beautiful town, that ere saw-mills, brick-kilns and such were ever dreamed of here, you reared your head proudly above all other buildings in town, and were "monarch of all you surveyed." But ever thus, on this sphere of ours, old houses crumble, old people pass onward to the world beyond the tomb, strange faces meet us, and aught that was remains as it was. Time, Death and Decay combine to rob us of precious objects, sadness takes possession of our souls, and we sometimes long to join the innumerable caravan and travel to the regions of the blest. Then Duty steps in. Necessity and ambition goad us onward in the hunt for wealth, fame and happiness, we forget our sorrows and grapple anew the stern realities of life. So it was with our friend Howard, we presume. He clung to the old weather-beaten log cabin until it cracked and groined with age, when, reluctantly, no doubt, he "folded his tent like an Arab" and silently, sadly tottered away.

MATTERS AT FORT WHIFFLE.—Since the return of the troops from Eastern Arizona, a great many have been afflicted with scurvy and palpitation of the heart, but we are glad to learn that most of the boys are now well, able to eat their rations and make another scout. The cavalry horses and quartermaster mules are in splendid condition. All hands are dead broke, and the paymaster is anxiously looked for. The contract for herding Government cattle, made about a year ago with Bowers & Bro., has expired, and the cattle have all been driven from the Agua Fria ranch and turned over to Col. Baker. Besides these cattle, a lot arrived here the other day from Sonora. We understand that another scout will soon start out.

FROM CAMP LINCOLN.—The mail arrived from this place Tuesday last. Major Krause and James Baker came up with it. A soldier, whose name we do not know, died at camp on Saturday last, of diarrhea. Mr. Baker enclosed the grave of his brother John, who was lately killed by the Apaches.

Mrs. T. Barnum, Dr. J. T. Alsap, Graves and one or two other persons, started for Tucson, early in the week. Mrs. Barnum goes to join her husband at Tucson.

SAM. C. MILLER, who has taken a contract from the Quartz Mountain Saw-mill Company, to haul from the woods to their mill at this place, 200,000 feet of logs, on Monday last, sent four teams and six men to do that little job. Jake Miller, Sam's brother and partner left the ranch Thursday last with six teams. He goes to La Paz, for freight.

CAMP WHIFFLE DRAMATIC ASSOCIATION.—Following are the names of the members of this organization, as furnished us by the Secretary, Rudolph Holde:

G. G. Wortman, President; Thomas P. Higgins, Vice President; Rudolph Holde, Secretary; John H. Kansteiner, Treasurer; Chas. Lamonte, Stage Manager.

Active Members.—A. N. Haight, Charles Lamonte, John Billings, G. W. Miller, Daniel McKenley, Frank Shaw, Francis Mahl, Thomas King, George Sherman, John Hodnett, Robert Richmond, James Thompson, Scenic Artist, S. O. L. Potter.

Honorary Members.—Lieutenant R. S. Oliver, and Lieutenant A. B. Currier.

MR. JAS. GRANT, mail contractor, informed us that on the last trip of his mail stage from La Paz to Wickenburg, the stage and animals got lost in the mud of the Hachichala valley, and the driver and passengers had a sweet time getting them out. Mr. Grant started down the road Wednesday morning, for the purpose of putting more stock on the line, and probably another stage, as travel between La Paz and Wickenburg is on the increase. Since Mr. G. has been carrying the California mail, from La Paz to Prescott, he has done his full duty, and, as far as we can learn, the people are well satisfied with the service. We know that it is his ambition to carry our California mail regularly, and if the contractor on the California side does his duty, there will be no swearing about mails on this side of the Colorado.

FARMER'S MEETING.—Attention is called to a notice calling a meeting of farmers at Prescott, on Saturday, July 25th. From what we have learned in regard to this movement of our farmers, we are of opinion that good will result from it, provided they proceed and act in the right spirit. If we understand their design, it is merely to shut out the go-between, or speculator, in their transactions with the agents of government; and no attempt will be made to raise the price of produce beyond a fair standard.

CAMP WHIFFLE DRAMATIC ASSOCIATION.—It is not often that the people of a frontier settlement are presented with such an opportunity of enjoying themselves as were the people of Prescott and vicinity, on Monday and Tuesday nights last, when this dramatic company appeared in the Prescott Theatre, and treated our citizens to a melange of very good acting, singing and dancing. Considering the means, material and appliances at the disposal of the managers, we must say, that things were fixed up better than was to have been expected. The building was too small to accommodate all who presented themselves for admission, and nearly 100 people had to be turned away from the doors of the Theatre. The performance, Monday night, consisted of "The Lottery Ticket, or The Lawyer's Clerk," Ethiopian Burlesque, dancing, singing, and the laughable after piece, "Bombastes Furioso." Mr. Lamonte's "Capena" was capital; J. B. O'Neill's "Wormwood," to borrow the language of an eminent concentrator, "covered all the ground." Mr. Wortman, as Charles; Mr. McKenley, as Mrs. Corsett; Mr. Hodnett, as Susan, performed their parts well. Billings, as a singer, is without an equal in these parts, and Shaw is heavy on the dance. Hodnett's acting pleased our citizens very much. Of course O'Neill and Lamonte, who played the leading characters, were looked upon as bright particular stars, as they deserve to be. The performance was repeated Tuesday evening, to a full house. An entire change of programme is announced for next Monday night, with new scenery, etc., and a good time may be looked for.

KOTTEL & HOFMANN.—We direct the attention of mill-men, miners and prospectors to the card of these gentlemen, which appears in to-day's paper. The name of Guido Kustel has become a household word on the Pacific coast, where, we think, he has done more than any other man to develop its hidden wealth. His book on Mining has thrown great light upon the vexatious sulphuret question. In fact, as a metallurgist and assayer, a practical and scientific miner, he stands at the head of the profession. His partner, Mr. Hofmann, is said to be a promising metallurgist, and is never happy except when "going through" a quartz boulder.

RAIN.—During the week, this part of Arizona has been blessed with abundance of rain. The creeks and gulches are filled with water, the crops are looking exceedingly well; the air is cool and bracing, and the face of the country is robed in beautiful green. Let us return thanks to a kind Providence for this delightful country; and everything in it, save and accept the Apaches.

OVERLAND MONTHLY.—The first number of this Pacific Coast Magazine has been received, and we have handed it over to a critical friend for dissection. It is highly spoken of by the newspapers of the coast, and we doubt not but that it is fully equal to the best Eastern magazines. A. Roman & Co., San Francisco, are the publishers, and we advise our literary friends to forward $5, and get the Overland. Frank Bret Harte, who is known as a planet of the first magnitude in the literary world of the Pacific, is its editor. Should we ever receive another copy of the magazine we will say more about its merits, but that is doubtful, judging from the manner in which the publisher of "Putnam" has treated us.

GOSE TO WICKENBURG.—Our old and esteemed fellow-townsmen, Judge Wm. J. Berry, has shaken the dust of Prescott from his feet, and removed to Wickenburg. We can safely commend the Judge to the people of Wickenburg, as an honest, upright man and good citizen.
